Fundraising Tip

Organise a Cake Sale Fundraiser

Have a Cake Sale!

Home made cakes are yummy, maybe you or someone you know could make cakes to sell at work, college, school or club? There are cake toppers and posters on the web site to help.

Have an Afternoon Tea for Autism with a Quiz!

Get the best China tea set out, have some cucumber sandwiches and scones with this fun Quiz. Simply ask your friends and family to donate what they can to take part.

There are quiz Questions and also a Picture Quiz already prepared for you on the web site to help. Bring a few friends and family together for some fun as well as raising funds! Win! Win!

Can your employer help with Employer Match Funding?

Some Employers have 'Match Funding Schemes' in place that support their employees by matching their fundraising efforts by up to 100%. The information leaflet about 'Employer Match Funding' is available on the 'How to Fundraise' page at www.walkforautism.co.uk

Remember any cash raised can be paid into your own bank account and then you can make a personal donation to your online fundraising page.

You can also reach out to your 'Walking Buddies' for help at hello@walkforautism.co.uk
